NOTE:

Hello, I am an interviewer working with SC&C, a social research agency. For the Academy of Sciences, we are conducting a study of people's attitudes and values on religion and faith. We want to know your opinions on, for instance, the role of religion in contemporary world and how (if at all) it influences our life. Together with you, people in approximately 1400 households across the Czech Republic and a number of European countries are answering this questionnaire.

The study is confidential and the data cannot be misused in any way. We are solely interested in aggregated data for the population of the Czech Republic. The data is processed anonymously. The interview takes about 45 minutes.

This is a highly important study. Your answers are extremely valuable to us. Please answer our questionnaire.
